Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

On November 26, 2026, at 02:00 p.m., ICICI Bank Limited (the Bank) has received an Order in Appeal under Section 107 of West Bengal Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 from Additional Commissioner of State Tax (Appeals), West Bengal, raising a Goods and Services Tax (GST) demand amounting to ₹ 36,80,41,563/- (Tax ₹ 18,71,82,026/-; interest ₹ 16,21,41,335/- and penalty ₹ 1,87,18,202/-).

The aforesaid Order in Appeal includes an issue relating to GST demand on services provided by the Bank to customers maintaining specified minimum balances in their accounts. In the past, the Bank has received show cause notices (SCNs) and order(s) on the same issue from various tax authorities. While the Bank is in litigation (including writ petition(s)) against the SCNs, since the aggregate/cumulative amount involved in the above crosses the materiality threshold, this matter is being reported.

The Bank will take appropriate steps, including contesting the Order through a further appeal within prescribed timelines.

Please take the above information on record.

Yours sincerely,
For ICICI Bank Limited
