EaseMyTrip is also offering a wide range of domestic and international holiday packages as part of its Winter Carnival Sale, providing travelers with attractive options to plan their winter getaways. From popular domestic destinations to international holiday experiences, the sale aims to make travel more accessible and rewarding for customers during the winter holiday season, with a focus on family holidays, leisure travel and long-stay opportunities.

Spokesperson – Rikant Pittie, CEO & Co-Founder, EaseMyTrip

"The Christmas and New Year holiday season represents one of the most significant travel periods of the year, with travelers increasingly looking to explore new destinations, enjoy family vacations and experience meaningful year-end getaways. At EaseMyTrip, our focus is on making these travel experiences more accessible, convenient and rewarding. Through our Winter Carnival Sale, we are offering attractive savings across flights, hotels, holiday packages and other travel services, enabling customers to plan their year-end holidays with greater flexibility and value. Our strategic collaborations with leading airline, banking and lifestyle partners further reinforce our commitment to delivering a comprehensive and customer-centric travel experience. The Winter Carnival Sale also aligns with EaseMyTrip's broader strategy of strengthening its integrated travel ecosystem, deepening customer engagement and expanding its presence across hotels, holidays and other non-air segments."

As travelers gear up for Christmas celebrations and prepare to welcome New Year 2027, EaseMyTrip's Winter Carnival Sale brings together a wide range of travel offers to make year-end holidays more accessible and rewarding. Whether it is a family vacation, a quick winter getaway or an international holiday, the campaign aims to empower travelers with greater choice, convenience and savings as they celebrate the holiday season and welcome the new year.

All offers are subject to eligibility, availability and applicable terms and conditions.
