Thomas Cook India strengthens West Bengal footprint
Opens outlet in Kolkata
Increases consumer access to 10 locations in the city

- The new outlet intends to leverage the growing travel demand from the region
- Growth drivers include regional Bengali group tours, featuring experienced Bengali-speaking Tour Managers and the comfort of travelling with co-travellers from the region

Mumbai, November 24, 2026: With a strategic focus on capitalising on the strong and growing travel demand from Kolkata – one of its key source markets, Thomas Cook (India) Limited, India's leading omnichannel travel services company, has inaugurated its new outlet in Kolkata. The new outlet expands Thomas Cook India's network to 10 locations in the city and 11 across the State, enhancing access to its comprehensive range of travel services.

Baranagar is an important residential and commercial catchment in North Kolkata, supported by its strong connectivity and proximity to key residential neighbourhoods and emerging growth hubs. Its strategic location makes it well suited to cater to the travel needs of a diverse and growing base of travellers across North Kolkata and adjoining areas.

The new outlet will cater to travellers from Baranagar, Dunlop and the BT Road corridor, along with neighbouring catchments of Dakshineswar, Barasat and Hooghly district across diverse customer segments including families, couples, Young India's Millennials and Gen Z, business travellers and GenS (seniors). Thomas Cook's Baranagar outlet offers end-to-end travel services: International & Domestic Holidays (Group Tours, Personalised holidays, Cruises, etc.), Value Added Services like Travel Insurance, etc. Additionally, Thomas Cook's AI booking platform assists customers in planning their personalized vacations in real time by checking availability and making reservations in a matter of minutes.

Kolkata/West Bengal Travel Trends

- Year-round travel: Travellers from Kolkata are increasingly leveraging public holidays and weekends to take multiple short breaks and mini-cations throughout the year, extending travel beyond traditional holiday seasons.
- Preference for experiential holidays: Travellers are increasingly looking for holidays that offer distinctive experiences and greater personalisation, moving beyond conventional destination-based itineraries.
- Diverse travel formats: Cruise holidays and charter-led journeys are gaining traction among travellers, with Thomas Cook India launching exclusive charter flights to Lakshadweep and Bhutan for the year-end holiday season.
- Growing demand for pilgrimage and spiritual tourism: Pilgrimage and spiritual travel continue to gain momentum, with Thomas Cook India strengthening its Spiritual Tourism portfolio 'Bhakti' to cater to this growing segment. Key spiritual hubs include Kailash Mansarovar, Char Dham, Vaishnodevi, Ujjain, Puri, Kashi and Ayodhya.
- Top destinations:
  - International: Europe's Switzerland, France, Austria, Italy, Spain; the Scandinavian countries of Finland, Norway and Sweden; Eastern European destinations such as the Czech Republic and Hungary; Australia and New Zealand; South America; Japan, South Korea, Vietnam, Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia and Singapore.
  - Domestic and Indian subcontinent: Rajasthan, Kerala, Andamans, Lakshadweep, Northeast India, and Sri Lanka.

Mr. Rajeev Kale, President & Country Head – Holidays, MICE, Visa, Thomas Cook (India) Limited said, "Kolkata is an important source market for us – not only within West Bengal, but across the wider East India region. The market continues to demonstrate strong year-round travel aspirations, with customers increasingly seeking new destinations and diverse experiences. The launch of our new Baranagar outlet reinforces our commitment to being closer to our customers and understanding their evolving travel needs. Through the outlet, we will offer personalised, end-to-end travel solutions across our extensive portfolio of domestic and international holidays, along with a range of value-added services. We also have exclusive Bengali tours with co-travellers from the state, accompanied by an experienced Bengali-speaking Tour Manager ensuring greater comfort and familiarity throughout the journey.
On behalf of my team, I extend a warm welcome to our customers in Baranagar and the surrounding catchments. My team and I look forward to co-curating memorable holiday experiences and helping them explore destinations across India and around the world."
