- Features a 200cc engine delivering robust performance and large capacity 2 meter long load deck with upto 1Ton Load capacity for efficient delivery
- Available in 2 colors – Blue & Red with a special introductory price of 2,255,000 AOA

Singapore/Luanda, November 27, 2026: TVS Motor Company (TVSM), part of TVS VENU, the world's third-largest two-wheeler manufacturer and a global leader in the two- and three-wheeler segments, today launched the TVS Armado Tricycle in Angola, expanding its commercial mobility portfolio in the African market. With its high payload capacity, the TVS Armado is engineered to handle diverse cargo requirements while delivering a comfortable riding experience and practical functionality. The vehicle will be available in Angola through SANZI MOTO, TVS Motor Company's authorized distributor.

Powered by a 200 cc oil-cooled engine, the TVS Armado is purpose-built to support long operating hours and demanding commercial applications. Its 2-metre cargo bed offers substantial load-carrying capability, making it suitable to transport a wide range of goods with a capacity to carry upto 1 ton. Its robust construction and comfortable riding features further enhance its suitability for everyday commercial use. The vehicle features ergonomic seats, suspension engineered to improve ride comfort under load, an informative digital cluster and a USB charging port for added convenience, making it a very practical and reliable solution for commercial operators. TVS Armado aims to be a reliable business partner for those who work relentlessly to build a better future, in line with TVS Motor's vision of transforming the quality of life of people across the world by providing mobility solutions that are exciting, responsible, sustainable and safe
