There are no adverse remarks, reservations and/or qualification made by Statutory Auditor in their Report on the Standalone Financial Statements of the Company, except Eight qualified opinions mentioned below. The notes to the financial statements as on March 31, 2026, referred to in the Auditor's Report are self-explanatory and therefore do not call for any further comments.

During the year under review, the Auditors had not reported any matter under Section 143(12) of the Companies Act, 2013; therefore no detail is required to be discussed under Section 134(3)(ca) of the Companies Act, 2013.

Qualified opinion: Project advances falling under other non- current assets includes an amount of Rs.2,200 lakhs recoverable from Shri Kamala Priya Auto and General Agencies Private Limited and Rs. 200 lakhs from one of the associated person of the entity namely Mallipudi Anand. Subsequent to the grant of the aforesaid advance, the name of the above mentioned Company has been struck off from the Register of Companies. The Company has made a provision of 50% of the aforesaid amount i.e Rs. 1,200 lakhs. The recovery of the balance is uncertain.

Management's Reply: The advance was granted in the normal course of business towards acquisition of land for a project. Management is actively pursuing recovery from the promoters of the struck-off company, including Mr. Mallipudi Anand, and is also evaluating legal remedies.

As a measure of prudence, a provision of 50% (Rs. 1,200 lakhs) has already been made. Management is reasonably confident of recovering the balance and will review the adequacy of the provision at each reporting date based on progress of recovery.

Qualified opinion: The Company has advanced funds aggregating to Rs 6,414.80 lakhs to Flying Fox Private Limited under Other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026 as project advance, an entity whose net worth has been eroded. The Company has not recognised any impairment provision in respect thereof. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.

Management's Reply: Management has noted the auditors' observation.Based on management's assessment of expected cash flows, the advance is considered recoverable at present. Management remains mindful of the concern raised and will continue to monitor the position closely, reassessing the need for any impairment at each reporting date and providing for it, if circumstances so warrant.

Qualified opinion: The Company has project advances Rs. 3,588.50 lakhs relating to Amritsar Project under other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026. These advances are subject to ongoing litigation. Considering the current status of litigation, the recovery is doubtful. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.

Management's Reply: The advances relating to the Amritsar Project are the subject of litigation in which, based on legal advice, the Company believes it has a strong case on merits. Management expects a favourable outcome and full recovery of the amount. Any provision, if required, will be considered upon the outcome of the litigation.

Qualified opinion: The Company has granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances aggregating to Rs. 14,730.11 lakhs included in current assets as at 31 March 2026. The company is in process of finalising the terms and conditions for recovery of the said amounts. In view of the above, the company should have impaired these loan and advances which has not been done. Consequently, the current assets and profits for the year may be overstated to that extent.

Management's Reply: These loans and advances were granted in the ordinary course of business, and a significant portion of them is secured.

Management considers these amounts good and recoverable, and will assess the need for any expected credit loss provision once the terms of recovery are finalised.

Qualified opinion: The Company has advanced an amount of Rs. 1,080.66 lakhs, included under Other Non-current Assets as at 31 March 2026, to its associate company, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, towards a project which is on hold due to certain regulatory issues. Considering the current status of the project, we are unable to express an opinion on recoverability of the aforesaid amount.

Management's Reply: The project of the associate, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, is temporarily on hold pending certain regulatory clearances, which the associate is actively pursuing with the authorities concerned. The underlying project asset remains with the associate. Management considers the advance recoverable either on revival of the project or through realisation of the underlying assets, and hence no provision is considered necessary at this stage.

Qualified opinion: The Company has not provided interest expense on its certain ICDs amounting to Rs 1,582.28 lakhs as negotiations with the lenders are under process, these borrowings will be settled mutually. Additionally, interest expense on advance received from customers has also not been booked as negotiations for settlement of the same is under progress. As agreements governing these balances are not available, consequently, the terms and conditions necessary for determining the applicable interest rate and computing the related interest expense could not be determined and potential overstatement or understatement cannot be ascertained. In view of the above, we are unable to express an opinion thereon.

Management's Reply: The Company is in negotiation with the ICD lenders for a mutually agreed settlement, which is expected to include waiver or reduction of interest. Since the settlement is expected to be concluded without a material interest liability, no interest has been provided. Similarly, advances received from customers towards projects, settlement discussions are in progress. Any liability arising on final settlement will be recognised in the period in which the terms are concluded.

Qualified opinion: Certain Trade Receivables of the company are not confirmed as they are under reconciliation as mentioned in the notes to accounts.

Management's Reply: Management acknowledges the auditors' observation. Based on the information available, management does not presently anticipate any material adjustment. Any differences identified on completion of the reconciliation will be suitably addressed in the books, and management will continue to work towards strengthening the confirmation process going forward.

Qualified opinion:The Company has outstanding ICDS aggregating to Rs. 6,902.97 lakhs as at 31 March 2026. The agreements and other supporting documentation governing these balances have not been executed and are not available as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective lenders as most of these borrowings are presently pending before various legal and judicial forums. In the absence of duly executed agreements and balance confirmations, interest payable, wherever applicable, has been computed based on the details and information provided by the management.

Management's Reply: The Company is in negotiation with the ICD lenders for a mutually agreed settlement, which is expected to include waiver or reduction of interest. Since the settlement is expected to be concluded without a material interest liability, no interest has been provided. Similarly, advances received from customers towards projects, settlement discussions are in progress. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT

For the financial year ended 31 March 2026

1. Economic overview

India's economy remained resilient during FY 2025–26. As per the Provisional Estimates released by the National Statistics Office (NSO), Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation, on 5 June 2026, real GDP grew by 7.7% in FY 2025–26, compared with 7.1% in FY 2024–25, while nominal GDP grew by 8.9%. Private final consumption expenditure and gross fixed capital formation each grew by more than 7.5% in real terms. At constant prices, the construction sector grew by 7.4% and the 'Financial, Real Estate, IT, Professional Services & Ownership of Dwelling' sector grew by 10.4%.

Monetary conditions eased during the year. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) reduced the policy repo rate by a cumulative 100 basis points during FY 2025–26 to 5.25% and has since held it at that level with a neutral stance. In its August 2026 policy review, the RBI projected real GDP growth of 6.7% and CPI inflation of 5.0% for FY 2026–27, while noting risks from geopolitical developments in West Asia and from food and energy prices.

Lower interest rates are supportive of housing affordability and project finance. However, the Company's prospects continue to depend on its access to funding, timely approvals, liquidity, project execution and customer sentiment in its key markets.

2. Industry structure and developments

India's real-estate sector continues to formalise and consolidate. Demand is increasingly concentrated with organised developers that have established brands, transparent customer processes, access to capital, execution capability and robust compliance systems. Residential demand continues to be supported by household formation, urbanisation, improving connectivity and a preference for larger, better-amenitised homes.

Market performance, however, has become more differentiated by city and price segment. According to Knight Frank India, residential sales across the eight major cities in the first half of calendar 2026 were 1,71,471 units, broadly flat (up 1%) year-on-year, while launches rose 4% to 1,87,350 units. New supply has exceeded sales since 2022, and unsold inventory rose 4% year-on-year to 5,25,695 units. Homes priced above Rs.1 crore accounted for 54% of sales, while sales of homes priced below Rs.50 lakh declined 15%. JLL, which tracks apartment sales in seven cities, reported sales of about 1.38 lakh units in the same period, up 3% year-on-year. The two data sets differ in coverage and methodology and are not directly comparable.

The National Capital Region (NCR), the Company's key market, was the weakest-performing major market in H1 2026. Knight Frank India reported that NCR residential sales declined 7% year-on-year to 24,862 units, following a 9% decline in calendar 2025, and launches fell 5% to 23,877 units. It attributed the slowdown to the absorption of lower-priced inventory in key micro-markets, a shift of new supply towards higher price points, and weaker buyer sentiment amid geopolitical uncertainty. This reinforces the need for disciplined inventory management, realistic pricing, timely delivery and careful project selection.

Government programmes, RERA-led transparency, digital customer acquisition, infrastructure investment and demand for quality housing continue to support the organised segment. At the same time, delays in land-use conversion and approvals, litigation, the availability of project finance, construction costs and customer collections remain material constraints for the industry.

3. Company overview and strengths

Vipul Limited is a Gurugram-based real-estate developer engaged in the development, sale and management of residential, commercial, plotted and related properties. The Company's principal strengths are:

1. Brand and market recognition built over more than three decades in the real-estate sector.
2. Experience in project planning, development, marketing and execution.
3. A portfolio of projects and development opportunities across residential, commercial and plotted formats.
4. Experienced management and project teams with functional expertise, supported by external architects, consultants, contractors and specialist agencies.
5. Scope to improve cash generation through project monetisation, collection efficiency, asset rationalisation and disciplined cost management.

4. Significant corporate developments

- Amalgamation: Figures for FY 2024–25 have been restated to give effect to the Scheme of Amalgamation of five wholly-owned subsidiaries with the Company, sanctioned by the National Company Law Tribunal by its order dated April 17, 2026.
- Divestment: The Company sold 50% of its stake in High-Class Projects, a wholly-owned subsidiary, for Rs.438 lakh, following which it became an associate of the Company.
- Preferential issue: On 27 February 2026, the Company allotted 8,89,00,000 fully convertible warrants at Rs.9.20 each, aggregating Rs.8,178.80 lakh, to promoter and non-promoter investors. The warrants are convertible into an equal number of equity shares within 18 months of allotment. The Company received Rs.2,044.70 lakh on allotment, with the balance payable on conversion.
- Key management: On 27 February 2026, Mr. Punit Beriwala, Managing Director, CEO & CFO, was arrested by the Economic Offences Wing, Gurugram, in connection with FIR No. 322 of 2025. The Company has informed the stock exchanges that the proceedings relate to him personally and that its operations continue in the normal course. Owing to his judicial custody, the Audit Committee and Board meetings to approve the audited financial results for FY 2025–26 could not be convened within the timeline prescribed under the SEBI Listing Regulations. The Board is evaluating interim management arrangements.
- Board changes: Mr. Rajeev Gupta resigned as Independent Director and Chairperson with effect from 4 June 2026.
- Annual General Meeting: The Registrar of Companies, Delhi has granted an extension of time for holding the Annual General Meeting for FY 2025–26.
- Litigation: In Company Petition No. 205/ND/2025 filed by the Company against Tanamera Developments Private Limited and others, the NCLT, New Delhi, by its order dated 10 December 2025, directed maintenance of status quo and restrained disposal of assets pending further hearing.

5. Segment-wise and project-wise performance

The Company operates in a single business segment, namely real-estate development, as reported in the financial statements under Ind AS 108. Its project portfolio spans residential, commercial, plotted and institutional developments, together with facility-maintenance activities.

Revenue from operations for FY 2025–26 was Rs.5,957.75 lakh, compared with Rs.8,126.58 lakh in FY 2024–25, a decline of 26.69%. Other income increased to Rs.2,830.87 lakh from Rs.1,260.85 lakh and accounted for 32.2% of total income. As a result, total income declined by a smaller 6.38%, to Rs.8,788.62 lakh from Rs.9,387.43 lakh. Other income during the year comprised interest income of Rs.1,200.39 lakh, miscellaneous income of Rs.1,341.60 lakh, interest on income-tax refund of Rs.215.52 lakh and rental income of Rs.73.36 lakh.

The Company continues to monitor each project for sales velocity, collections, unsold inventory, construction progress, approval status, estimated cost to complete, customer claims, receivables ageing and project-level cash flows.

6. Opportunities and threats

Opportunities

- Lower interest rates, which improve home-loan affordability and reduce the cost of project finance.
- Continuing demand for premium and better-amenitised housing, which now accounts for more than half of residential sales in major cities.
- Monetisation of completed, near-completion and non-core assets, including unsold inventory.
- Selective development or joint-development opportunities that require lower upfront capital.
- Improved collections through stronger customer engagement, settlement mechanisms and documentation.
- Digital lead generation, virtual project presentation and data-led sales management.
- Energy-efficient buildings, water conservation, renewable energy and green amenities.
- Capital raised through the preferential issue of warrants, and partnerships with financial institutions, strategic investors and execution partners, to strengthen liquidity and reduce leverage.

Threats

- Moderation in NCR residential demand and a growing supply–demand gap across major cities, which may slow sales and put pressure on pricing.
- Competition from established and emerging developers.
- Rising construction and labour costs, and volatility in input prices linked to geopolitical developments.
- Approval delays, litigation and title risks, and changes in taxation and RERA requirements.
- Customer affordability constraints, delayed collections, inventory concentration and liquidity pressure.

The Company's reported results are also sensitive to the timing of project completion and revenue recognition, the sale of land or other assets, revisions in estimated project costs, provisions and the recoverability of receivables.

7. Outlook

Management remains focused on improving operational discipline, project completion, sales and collections, asset monetisation, cost control and the reduction of financial liabilities. With the RBI projecting GDP growth of 6.7% for FY 2026–27 and interest rates at their lowest level in several years, the macroeconomic backdrop is supportive; however, the near-term outlook for the NCR residential market is expected to remain selective rather than uniformly buoyant. The Company will prioritise projects and transactions that offer visibility of approvals, customer demand, funding, execution and cash conversion.

The outlook is subject to market conditions, financing, approvals, customer collections, the outcome of pending legal proceedings and other factors beyond the Company's control. The statements in this section are not guarantees of future performance.

8. Risks and concerns

The Company's principal risks include:

- Governance and key-management risk arising from the unavailability of the Managing Director, CEO & CFO, who holds all three roles, and the resulting need for interim management arrangements and timely regulatory compliance.
- Project execution risk arising from contractor performance, labour availability, material prices, design changes and construction delays.
- Approval and regulatory risk relating to land title, zoning, environmental permissions, building approvals, RERA registration, local-authority procedures and compliance with the SEBI Listing Regulations.
- Liquidity and refinancing risk arising from negative operating cash flow, timing mismatches and borrowing obligations.
- Customer and receivables risk arising from delayed collections, cancellations, disputes and concentration in specific projects.
- Market risk arising from changes in housing demand, prices, interest rates and consumer affordability.
- Legal and litigation risk arising from land, contractual, customer, lender, regulatory and tax matters.
- Climate and environmental risk arising from heat, flooding, water scarcity, energy costs, extreme weather and the transition to lower-carbon construction.
- Cybersecurity and information risk arising from dependence on digital sales, accounting, customer and project systems.
- Fraud and conduct risk arising from unauthorised commitments, vendor arrangements, documentation gaps and misuse of Company assets.

Risks are identified, assessed and monitored through the Company's risk-management process, and material developments are reported to the Audit Committee and the Board.

9. Internal control systems and their adequacy

The Company's internal financial controls are designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the safeguarding of assets, the prevention and detection of fraud and error, the accuracy and completeness of accounting records, the authorisation of transactions, compliance with applicable laws and reliable financial reporting.

The control environment includes management review, budgeting, project-level monitoring, delegated authorities, bank and ledger reconciliations, vendor and customer controls, legal review, statutory-compliance tracking, internal audit, statutory audit and Audit Committee oversight. Particular focus is placed on project cost estimates, revenue recognition, inventory, receivables, related-party transactions, land and title records, cash management and statutory dues.

The loss for the year narrowed by Rs.792.14 lakh, as total expenses fell by 11.96% and other income more than doubled, more than offsetting the 26.69% decline in revenue from operations. The reduction in total expenses was mainly due to lower project expenses, lower finance costs and lower other operating expenses. Despite this improvement, the Company reported a loss and negative operating cash flow for FY 2025–26; working-capital discipline, project cash flows and collections therefore remain key management priorities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF
VIPUL LIMITED
Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Qualified Opinion

1. We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of VIPUL LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2026, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity and notes to the financial statements for the year then ended on that date, including a summary of Material accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as "Standalone Financial Statements").

   In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, except for the possible effect of the matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph and Basis of Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2026, its loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

2. Matters described in Basis for Qualified Opinion:

   i. We draw attention to Note 41 to the standalone financial Statements, which describes the accounting treatment followed by the Company consequent to the Scheme of Arrangement ("Scheme") for amalgamation of five wholly owned subsidiaries with the Company. The Scheme has been approved by the Hon'ble National Company Law Tribunal ("NCLT"), Delhi, vide its order dated 17 April 2026, with an appointed date of 1 April 2022, and a certified copy of the said order was filed by the Company with the Registrar of Companies, Delhi, on 15 May 2026.

   As stated in the aforesaid Note, in accordance with the Scheme approved by the NCLT, the Company has given effect to the Scheme from the retrospective appointed date specified therein, i.e. 1 April 2022. Since the Transferor Companies were wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, the amalgamation has been accounted for under the pooling of interest method.

   However, the accounting effect relating to revenue and project costs arising from the Joint Development Agreement ("JDA") entered into amongst the amalgamating entities and Vipul Limited for the development of the Lavanya Project has been given effect to in the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2026, instead of from the appointed date of the Scheme, i.e. 1 April 2022. Accordingly, the cumulative effect of such revenue and project costs has been recognised in the current financial year and the corresponding impact has not been recognised from the appointed date. Consequently, the comparative information has not been restated in respect of such revenue and project costs.

   In our opinion, the aforesaid accounting treatment is not in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Indian Accounting Standards and the Scheme, which require the accounting effects of the amalgamation to be given effect from the appointed date of 1 April 2022. Consequently, the revenue, project costs, profit or loss, assets, liabilities and reserves for the current year and the comparative information are affected to the extent of the aforesaid matter.

ii. Attention is drawn to note number 40 regarding charge of depreciation amounting to Rs 7.12 lakhs for the year, on the combined value of land and building.

iii. The Company has outstanding Project advance aggregating to Rs.2,400 lakhs as detailed in note number 43 of which Rs. 2,200 lakhs is recoverable from an entity whose name has been struck off from the Register of Companies and Rs. 200 lakhs from a person associated with the entity. The Company has made a provision of Rs. 1,200 lakhs against these two amounts. The recovery of the balance is uncertain.

iv. The Company has advanced funds aggregating to Rs.6,414.80 lakhs as detailed in note number 48 (a) under Other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026 as project advance to an entity whose net worth has been eroded. The Company has not recognised any impairment provision in respect thereof. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.

v. The Company has project advances Rs.3,588.50 lakhs as detailed in note number 48 (c) under other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026. This advance is subject to ongoing litigation. Considering the current status of litigation, the recovery is doubtful. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.

vi. The Company has granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances aggregating to Rs.14,730.11 lakhs as detailed in note number 39(b)(i) included in current assets as at 31 March 2026. The company is in process of finalising the terms and conditions for recovery of the said amounts. In view of the above, the company should have impaired these loan and advances which has not been done. Consequently, the current assets are overstated to that extent.

vii. Certain Trade Receivables of the company are not confirmed as they are under reconciliation as mentioned in the notes to accounts.

Accordingly, our opinion is qualified in respect of these matters.

Basis for Disclaimer of opinion

3. Matters described in Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion:

i. The Company has advanced an amount of Rs.1,080.66 lakhs, as detailed in Note 42 (b) to the financial statements, included under Other Non-current Assets as at 31 March 2026, to its associate company, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, towards a project which is on hold due to certain regulatory issues. Considering the current status of the project, we are unable to express an opinion on recoverability of the aforesaid amount.

ii. As detailed in note number 50, the Company has not provided interest expense on its certain ICDs amounting to Rs 1,582.28 lakhs as negotiations with the lenders are under process, these borrowings will be settled mutually. Additionally interest expense on advance received from customers has also not been booked as negotiations for settlement of the same is under progress. As agreements governing these balances are not available, consequently, the terms and conditions necessary for determining the applicable interest rate and computing the related interest expense could not be determined and potential overstatement or understatement cannot be ascertained. In view of the above, we are unable to express an opinion thereon.

iii. The Company has outstanding ICDS aggregating to Rs. 6,902.97 lakhs as detailed in note number 50 as at 31 March 2026. The agreements and other supporting documentation governing these balances have not been executed and are not available as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective lenders as most of these borrowings are presently pending before various legal and judicial forums. In the absence of duly executed agreements and balance confirmations, interest payable, wherever applicable, has been computed based on the details and information provided by the management.

4. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013 as amended (the Act). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Results section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial results under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of matter

5. We draw your attention to the following matters included in the Notes to the Standalone Financial Statements:

   a. The company has advanced total of Rs 3, 270.25 Lakhs as detailed in note number 42 (a) to two of its wholly-owned subsidiaries. The net worth of these subsidiaries is eroded. The company has initiated the process for merger of these subsidiaries with itself post the balance sheet date before the signing of financials.

   b. Key Audit Matters

6. Key Audit Matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Sr. No	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
1	Investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and an associate and loans/ advances to subsidiaries and joint ventures The Company's investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, and an associate are recorded on the financial statements at their original cost, taking into account any impairment resulting in diminution in value. The Company evaluates these investments for impairment regularly, usually at each reporting date.	Apart from obtaining an understanding of management's processes and controls for assessing impairment of unquoted equity investments in loss-making subsidiaries and associates, our audit procedures included the following: • Gained an understanding of the framework and review mechanisms implemented by management for assessing the carrying values and recoverability of investments and loans/advances provided to group entities. • Evaluated the process followed by management for identifying circumstances that may indicate impairment in investments and loans/advances, with particular focus on entities having recurring losses, negative net worth or other adverse financial indicators.
2	Revenue recognition – accounting for construction contracts There are significant accounting judgements involved in the recognition of revenue from contracts, particularly in determining the estimated costs to complete, assessing the stage of completion of contracts and determining the appropriate timing of revenue recognition. The Company recognises revenue and the corresponding profit or loss based on the stage of completion of each contract, which is determined with reference to the proportion of contract costs incurred up to the reporting date relative to the estimated total costs expected to be incurred over the life of the contract. Accordingly, the measurement of revenue and contract profitability is dependent on management's estimates of the total costs required to complete each contract.	Our audit procedures in relation to this Key Audit Matter included, amongst others, the following: • Obtained an understanding of the Company's accounting policies and processes for recognition of revenue from contracts and assessed their consistency with the applicable financial reporting framework. • Obtained an understanding of the significant contractual terms and conditions, including contract tenure, consideration, scope of work, performance obligations, milestones, billing arrangements, and termination clauses.

Sr. No	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
3	Assessing the Recoverability of project advances As at 31 March 2026, the Company has project advances classified under both current and non-current assets. These include an advance of Rs.6,414.80 lakhs to an entity for which there are no definitive executed agreements or other legally enforceable documentation specifying the purpose, terms and conditions and recoverability of the advance. Further, the Company has an outstanding project advance of Rs.2,200 lakhs recoverable from an entity whose name has been struck off from the Register of Companies. In view of the legal status of the entity, there is significant uncertainty regarding the recoverability of the advance. Considering the significance of these advances and the uncertainty surrounding their recoverability, we considered this matter to be of most significance in our audit and accordingly determined it to be a key audit matter.	Our audit procedures included, among others: • Obtained an understanding of the nature, purpose and ageing of the project advances. • In respect of the advance of Rs.2,200 lakhs, considered the legal status of the recipient entity. • Discussed with management the status and basis of recovery of the advances and considered subsequent recoveries/developments, where applicable. • Evaluated the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements.

Other Information

7. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis; Board's Report including Annexures to Board Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholders' Information but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The aforesaid documents are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

8. Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance or conclusion thereon.

9. In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

10. When we read the aforesaid documents, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

11. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

12. In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

13. The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

14. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

15. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

16. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

17. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

18. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matters or when we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

19. Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

ANNEXURE- B: TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT To the Members of VIPUL LIMITED
[Referred to in paragraph 21 (h) of the Independent Auditor's Report of even date]

Report on the Internal Financial Control under Clause (i) of Sub –sections 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

1. We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of VIPUL LIMITED ("the Company") as of 31st March, 2026 in conjunction with our audit of The Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Control

2. The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial control based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the "Guidance Note" and the Standard on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting includes obtaining an understanding of internal financial control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material Weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal controls based on the assessed risk. The procedure selected depends on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risk of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error.

5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Control over Financial Reporting

6. A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

    1) Pertain to the maintenance of the records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;

    2) provide reasonable assurance that the transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditure of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorization of management and directors of company; and

3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Control over Financial Reporting

7. Because of inherent limitation of internal financial control over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluations of the internal financial control over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Qualified Opinion

8. According to the information and explanations given to us and based on our audit, the following material weaknesses have been identified as on March 31, 2026:

   i. The Company has taken as well as granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances during the year. The agreements/ documentation in respect of such loans and advances have not been executed as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective parties. In the absence of such signed agreements, interest payable and receivable, as applicable, has been computed on the basis of the details provided by the Management where available. The impact, if any, will be recognized after settlement between the parties.

9. A 'material weakness' is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal financial control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Club's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

10. In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the material weakness described above on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria, the Company had established informal practices which are generally effective in having a proper internal control over financial reporting and except for the effects/possible effects of the material weaknesses described above on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria, the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as of March 31, 2026.

11. We have considered the material weakness identified and reported above in determining the nature, timing, and extent of audit tests applied in our audit of the 31st March, 2026 standalone financial statements of the Company, and the material weakness has affected our opinion on the standalone financial statements of the Company and we have issued a qualified opinion on the standalone financial statements.

A. Corporate Information

Vipul Limited (the Company) is a public limited company domiciled and incorporated in India and its shares are publicly traded on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and the National Stock Exchange (NSE). The registered office of the Company is situated at Unit No. 201, C 50, Malviya Nagar, New Delhi -110017 and the corporate office is situated at Vipul Techsquare, Golf Course Road, Sector-43, Gurugram-122009 (Haryana).

The principle business activity of the company is Real Estate Development. The Company has its presence in the states of Haryana, Odisha and Punjab.

B. Material Accounting Policy Information

1. Basis of preparation of financial statements

The Standalone Financial Statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) as per the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 notified under the Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") and the relevant provisions and amendments, as applicable.

The Standalone Financial Statements of the Company for the year ended March 31, 2026 were authorized for issued by the Board of Directors on September 29, 2026.

The financial statements have been prepared on historical cost basis, except for certain financial assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments).

The Ind AS financial statements are presented in INR which is the Company's functional and presentation currency and all values are rounded to the nearest lakhs, except when otherwise indicated. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

2. Use of estimates and management judgements

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

a. Key estimates and assumptions:

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Company based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Company. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

i) Revenue recognition, contract costs and valuation of trade receivables

Revenue from contracts with customer in respect of Company's real estate projects is recognized when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to the customer, at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

Where the performance obligation is satisfied over time, revenue is measured by reference to the stage of completion of the project, determined using the input method based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date to the estimated total contract costs.

The application of this method requires the Company to exercise significant judgment and make estimates regarding the stage of completion, costs incurred to date, estimated costs to complete, total contract revenue, variations and claims, where applicable, and the recoverability of contract assets and trade receivables The effect of changes, if any, to estimates is recognised in the standalone financial statements for the period in which such changes are determined.

ii) Estimation of net realizable value for inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV).

NRV for completed inventory is assessed by reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined by the Company, based on comparable transactions identified by the Company for inventories in the same geographical market serving the same real estate segment.

NRV in respect of inventory under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction and an estimate of the time value of money to the date of completion.

iii) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

As described in the significant accounting policies, the Company reviews the estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment at the end of each reporting period.

iv) Actuarial Valuation

The determination of Company's liability towards defined benefit obligation to employees is made through independent actuarial valuation including determination of amounts to be recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss and in other comprehensive income. Such valuation depends upon assumptions determined after taking into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors such as supply and demand factors in the employment market. Information about such valuation is provided in notes to the financial statements.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

a. Property, Plant and Equipment

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises of its purchase price, any costs directly attributable to its acquisition and an initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, the obligation for which the company incurs when the item is acquired. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred. Each part of an item of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item is depreciated separately.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is de-recognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the Property, plant and equipment is derecognized.

b. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss.

The amortization period and the amortization method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting period

c. Revenue Recognition-

Revenue is recognized as follows:

I. The Company recognises revenue, on execution of agreement or letter of allotment and when control of the goods or services are transferred to the customer, at an amount that reflects the consideration (i.e. the transaction price) to which the Company is expected to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services excluding any amount received on behalf of third party (such as indirect taxes). An asset created by the Company's performance does not have an alternate use and as per the terms of the contract, the Company has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed till date. Hence the Company transfers control of a good or service over time and, therefore, satisfies a performance obligation and recognises revenue over time. The Company recognises revenue at the transaction price which is determined on the basis of agreement or letter of allotment entered into with the customer. The Company recognises revenue for performance obligation satisfied over time only if it can reasonably measure its progress towards complete satisfaction of the performance obligation. The Company uses cost-based input method for measuring progress for performance obligation satisfied over time. Under this method, the Company recognises revenue in proportion to the actual project cost incurred (excluding land cost) as against the total estimated project cost (excluding land cost). The management reviews and revises its measure of progress periodically and are considered as change in estimates and accordingly, the effect of such changes in estimates is recognised prospectively in the period in which such changes are determined.

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Company performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional.

A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Company has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Company transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognised when the payment is made or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Company performs under the contract. A receivable represents the Company's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due).

II. Claims, interest and transfer fees from customers are recognized on acceptance of the same.

III. Income from interest is accounted for on time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable rate of interest.

IV. Revenue from operation includes various charges recovered from the customers which is recognized on accrual basis having regard to timing and nature of service provided.

d. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition or construction of a qualifying asset are carried as part of the cost of such asset. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the year they are incurred.

e. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is calculated using the written down value method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over the useful lives of assets estimated by the management and as given in schedule II of The Companies Act, 2013 except, life of furniture and fixtures has been estimated as 15 years against 10 years as per Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during a period is proportionately charged.

Software is amortized over the estimated useful life of 5 years.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate

f. Inventories

i. Constructed properties, shown as work in progress, includes the cost of land (including development rights and land under agreements to purchase), internal development costs, external development costs, construction costs, overheads, borrowing costs, construction materials and is valued at lower of cost/ estimated cost and net realizable value.

ii. On completion of projects, unsold stocks are transferred to project finished stock under the head "Inventory" and the same is carried at cost or net realizable value, whichever is less.

iii. Finished Goods – Plots: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.

g. Retirement Benefits

i. Short Term employee benefit

The employees of the company are entitled to compensate absences which are non-accumulating in nature. Expenses of such compensated absences are recognized in the period in which such absences occur.

ii. Long Term and Post–employment benefits

a) The employees' gratuity fund scheme managed by Life Insurance Corporation ofIndia is a defined benefit plan. The present value of obligation is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method.

b) Retirement benefits in the form of Provident Fund and Superannuation/ Pension schemes are charged to the Profit & Loss Statement in the year when the contributions to the respective funds are due.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

h. Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation if the company has a present obligation as a result of past event and the amount of obligation can be reliably estimated.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

Possible future or present obligations that may but will probably not require outflow of resources or where the same cannot be reliably estimated is disclosed as contingent liability in the financial statement.

Where an inflow of economic benefits is probable, a brief description of the nature of the contingent assets at the end of reporting period, and, where practicable, an estimate of their financial effect is disclosed.

i. Taxes on Income

Tax expense recognized in statement of profit and loss comprises the sum of deferred tax and current tax except the ones recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax is determined in respect of taxable income for the year based on applicable tax rates and laws.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses, unused tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised; such reductions are reversed when the probability of future taxable profits improves. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences.

Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only if:

a) the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities; and

b) The deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on the same taxable entity.

j. Foreign Currency Transactions

Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates in effect at Balance Sheet date. The gains or losses resulting from such translation are included in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of transactions.

Revenue, expense and cash flow items denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate in effect on the date of transaction.

k. Segment Reporting

The company has identified that its operating activity is a single primary business segment viz. Real Estate Development & Services carried out in India. Accordingly, whole of India has been considered as one geographical segment

l. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

m. Cash & Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash & cash on deposit with banks and corporations. The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash to be cash equivalents.

n. Financial Instruments

- Financial Instruments - Initial recognition and measurement

  Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized in the company's statement of financial position when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The company determines the classification of its financial assets and liabilities at initial recognition. All financial assets are recognized initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

- Financial assets - Subsequent measurement

  The Subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification which is as follows:

  - Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss: Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss include financial assets held for sale in the near term and those designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss.

- Financial assets measured at amortized cost: Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Trade receivables do not carry any interest and are stated at their nominal value as reduced by appropriate allowance for estimated irrecoverable amounts based on the ageing of the receivables balance and historical experience. Additionally, a large number of minor receivables are grouped into homogenous groups and assessed for impairment collectively. Individual trade receivables are written off when management deems them not to be collectible.

- Financial assets at fair value through OCI

  All equity investments, except investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, falling within the scope of Ind AS 109, are measured at fair value through Other Comprehensive Income (OCI). The company makes an irrevocable election on an instrument-by-instrument basis to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. If the company decides to designate an equity instrument at fair value through OCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI.

➢ Financial assets –Derecognition

The company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the assets expire or it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset. Upon derecognition of equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI, the associated fair value changes of that equity instrument is transferred from OCI to Retained Earnings.

➢ Investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates

Investments made by the company in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are measured at Cost. Impairment recognized, if any is reduced from the carrying value.

➢ Financial liabilities –

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, or as payables, as appropriate.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts.

Subsequent measurement

The Subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification which is as follows:

♦ Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

  Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading, if any.

♦ Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost

Interest bearing loans and borrowings including debentures issued by the company are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method (EIR). Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fee or costs that are integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortized is included in finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

➢ Financial liabilities – Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or expires.

➢ Fair Value measurement

The company measures certain financial instruments at fair value at each reporting date. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the assets or liability or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible to the company. The company uses valuation technique that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable, or
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

o. Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

Impairment losses, including impairment on inventories, are recognized in the statement of profit and loss. After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

p. Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Company recognizes lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and / or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses, if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

q. Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle;
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period. All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle;-
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The real estate development projects undertaken by the Company generally run over a period ranging upto 5 years. Operating assets and liabilities relating to such projects are classified as current based on an operating cycle of upto 5 years. Borrowings in connection with such projects are classified as short term (i.e. current) since they are payable over the term of the respective projects. Assets and liabilities, other than those discussed above, are classified as current to the extent they are expected to be realized / are contractually repayable within 12 months from the Balance sheet date and as non-current, in other cases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

r. Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the liabilities are de-recognised as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

s. Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is due within 12 months after reporting period. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

t. Events after reporting date

Where events occurring after the balance sheet date provide evidence of conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period, the impact of such events is adjusted in the Financial Statements. Otherwise, events after the balance sheet date of material size or nature are only disclosed.

4. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Company’s principal financial liabilities comprise loans and borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support Company's operations. The Company’s principal financial assets include trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents and loans and advances and refundable deposits that derive directly from its operations.

The Company is exposed to market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Company’s senior management oversees the management of these risks. The Company’s senior management is supported by a financial risk committee that advises on financial risks and the appropriate financial risk governance framework for the Company. The financial risk committee provides assurance to the Company’s senior management that the Company’s financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Company’s policies and risk objectives. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarized below.

A. Market risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises two types of risk: interest rate risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity/ real estate risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings and refundable deposits.

The sensitivity analysis in the following sections relate to the position as at March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025. The sensitivity analyses have been prepared on the basis that the amount of net debt and the ratio of fixed to floating interest rates of the debt. The analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on: the carrying values of gratuity and other post-retirement obligations; provisions.

The below assumption has been made in calculating the sensitivity analysis:

The sensitivity of the relevant profit or loss item is the effect of the assumed changes in respective market risks. This is based on the financial assets and financial liabilities held at March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025.

a. Currency Risk

Currency risk is not material, as the Company's primary business activities are within India and does not have significant exposure in foreign currency.

b. Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's long-term debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Company manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of fixed and variable rate loans and borrowings. The Company does not enter into any interest rate swaps.

c. Interest rate sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Company's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

Particulars	Increase / decrease in Interest rate	Effect on profit before tax* (Rs. In Lakhs)
March 31,2026
INR	Increase by 1%	Nil
INR	Decrease by 1%	Nil
March 31,2025
INR	Increase by 1%	Nil
INR	Decrease by 1%	Nil

*Determined on gross basis i.e. without considering conversion of such borrowing cost into inventory.

B. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including refundable joint development deposits, security deposits, loans to employees and other financial instruments.

Trade receivables

(a) Receivables resulting from sale of properties: Customer credit risk is managed by requiring customers to pay advances before transfer of ownership, therefore, substantially eliminating the Company's credit risk in this respect.

(b) Receivables resulting from other than sale of properties: Credit risk is managed by each business unit subject to the Company's established policy, procedures and control relating to customer credit risk management. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored. The impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date on an individual basis for major clients. In addition, a large number of minor receivables are grouped into homogeneous groups and assessed for impairment collectively. The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of each class of financial assets. The Company does not hold collateral as security. The Company's credit period generally ranges from 30-60 days.

Financial Instrument and cash deposits

Credit risk from balances with banks and financial institutions is managed by the Company's treasury department in accordance with the Company's policy. Investments of surplus funds are made only with approved counterparties and within credit limits assigned to each counter party.

Counterparty credit limits are reviewed by the Company's Board of Directors on an annual basis, and may be updated throughout the year subject to approval of the Company's Finance Committee. The limits are set to minimize the concentration of risks and therefore mitigate financial loss through a counter party's potential failure to make payments. The Company's maximum exposure to credit risk for the components of the statement of financial position at 31stMarch 2026 and 2025 is the carrying amounts.

C. Liquidity risk

The Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank deposits and loans. The table below summarizes the maturity profile of the Company's financial liabilities based on Contractual undiscounted payments:

(Rs. In Lakhs)

	On demand	Upto 1 year	1 to 5 years	>5 years	Total
Year ended March 31,2026
Borrowings	Nil	7955.27	Nil	Nil	7955.27
Trade payables	Nil	4411.98	Nil	Nil	4411.98
Other financial liabilities	Nil	13329.34	1628.42	Nil	14927.76
Year ended March 31,2025
Borrowings	Nil	8485.58	Nil	Nil	8485.58
Trade payables	Nil	4499.83	Nil	Nil	4499.83
Other financial liabilities	Nil	11942.74	3209.63	Nil	15152.37

The Management is of the opinion that the Company has sufficient current assets comprising of Trade Receivables, Cash & Cash Equivalents, Loans, Inventories and Other Current Financial Assets to manage the liquidity risk, if any in relation to current financial liabilities.

D. Capital management

For the purpose of the Company's capital management, capital includes issued equity capital, share premium and all other equity reserves attributable to the equity holders of the Company. The primary objective of the Company's capital management is to maximize the shareholder value.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions and the requirements of the financial covenants. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The Company monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. The Company includes within net debt, interest bearing loans and borrowings, trade and other payables (excluding Liability under JDA), less cash and cash equivalents.

(Rs. in Lakhs)

Particulars	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
Borrowings (long-term and short-term)	8,160.12	8,485.58
Less: Cash and cash equivalents	(3,376.48)	(3,180.75)
Net debt	4,783.64	5,304.83
Equity share capital	1,409.59	1,409.59
Other equity	37,898.06	37,192.59
Total Capital	39,307.65	38,602.18
Net Debt Gearing ratio	0.12	0.14

In order to achieve this overall objective, the Company's capital management, amongst other things, aims to ensure that it meets financial covenants attached to the interest-bearing loans and borrowings that define capital structure requirements. Breaches in meeting the financial covenants would permit the bank to immediately call loans and borrowings.

Annexure 1 to the Statement on Impact of Audit Qualifications (for audit report with modified opinion) submitted along-with Annual Audited Financial Results – (Standalone)

Sl	Details of Audit Qualification	If Management is unable to estimate the impact, reasons for the same	Auditors' Comments on Management's reasons
1.	Project advances falling under other non- current assets includes an amount of Rs.2,200 lakhs recoverable from Shri Kamala Priya Auto and General Agencies Private Limited and Rs. 200 lakhs from one of the associated person of the entity namely Mallipudi Anand. Subsequent to the grant of the aforesaid advance, the name of the above mentioned Company has been struck off from the Register of Companies. The Company has made a provision of 50% of the aforesaid amount i.e Rs. 1,200 lakhs. The recovery of the balance is uncertain.	The advance was granted in the normal course of business towards acquisition of land for a project. Management is actively pursuing recovery from the promoters of the struck-off company, including Mr. Mallipudi Anand, and is also evaluating legal remedies. As a measure of prudence, a provision of 50% (Rs. 1,200 lakhs) has already been made. Management is reasonably confident of recovering the balance and will review the adequacy of the provision at each reporting date based on progress of recovery.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
2.	The Company has advanced funds aggregating to Rs 6,414.80 lakhs to Flying Fox Private Limited under Other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026 as project advance, an entity whose net worth has been eroded. The Company has not recognised any impairment provision in respect thereof. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.	Management has noted the auditors' observation. Based on management's assessment of expected cash flows, the advance is considered recoverable at present. Management remains mindful of the concern raised and will continue to monitor the position closely, reassessing the need for any impairment at each reporting date and providing for it, if circumstances so warrant.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
3.	The Company has project advances Rs. 3,588.50 lakhs relating to Amritsar Project under other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026. These advances are subject to ongoing litigation. Considering the current status of litigation, the recovery is doubtful. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.	The advances relating to the Amritsar Project are the subject of litigation in which, based on legal advice, the Company believes it has a strong case on merits. Management expects a favourable outcome and full recovery of the amount. Any provision, if required, will be considered upon the outcome of the litigation.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
4.	The Company has granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances aggregating to Rs. 14,730.11 lakhs included in current assets as at 31 March 2026. The company is in process of finalising the terms and conditions for recovery of the said amounts. In view of the above, the company should have impaired these loan and advances which has not been done. Consequently, the current assets and profits for the year may be overstated to that extent.	These loans and advances were granted in the ordinary course of business, and a significant portion of them is secured. Management considers these amounts good and recoverable, and will assess the need for any expected credit loss provision once the terms of recovery are finalised.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.

5.	The Company has advanced an amount of Rs. 1,080.66 lakhs, included under Other Non-current Assets as at 31 March 2026, to its associate company, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, towards a project which is on hold due to certain regulatory issues. Considering the current status of the project, we are unable to express an opinion on recoverability of the aforesaid amount.	The project of the associate, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, is temporarily on hold pending certain regulatory clearances, which the associate is actively pursuing with the authorities concerned. The underlying project asset remains with the associate. Management considers the advance recoverable either on revival of the project or through realisation of the underlying assets, and hence no provision is considered necessary at this stage.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
6.	The Company has not provided interest expense on its certain ICDs amounting to Rs 1,582.28 lakhs as negotiations with the lenders are under process, these borrowings will be settled mutually. Additionally, interest expense on advance received from customers has also not been booked as negotiations for settlement of the same is under progress. As agreements governing these balances are not available, consequently, the terms and conditions necessary for determining the applicable interest rate and computing the related interest expense could not be determined and potential overstatement or understatement cannot be ascertained. In view of the above, we are unable to express an opinion thereon.	The Company is in negotiation with the ICD lenders for a mutually agreed settlement, which is expected to include waiver or reduction of interest. Since the settlement is expected to be concluded without a material interest liability, no interest has been provided. Similarly, advances received from customers towards projects, settlement discussions are in progress. Any liability arising on final settlement will be recognised in the period in which the terms are concluded.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
7	Certain Trade Receivables of the company are not confirmed as they are under reconciliation as mentioned in the notes to accounts.	Management acknowledges the auditors' observation. Based on the information available, management does not presently anticipate any material adjustment. Any differences identified on completion of the reconciliation will be suitably addressed in the books, and management will continue to work towards strengthening the confirmation process going forward.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
8	The Company has outstanding ICDS aggregating to Rs. 6,902.97 lakhs as at 31 March 2026. The agreements and other supporting documentation governing these balances have not been executed and are not available as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective lenders as most of these borrowings are presently pending before various legal and judicial forums. In the absence of duly executed agreements and balance confirmations, interest payable, wherever applicable, has been computed based on the details and information provided by the management.	The Company is in negotiation with the ICD lenders for a mutually agreed settlement, which is expected to include waiver or reduction of interest. Since the settlement is expected to be concluded without a material interest liability, no interest has been provided. Similarly, advances received from customers towards projects, settlement discussions are in progress. Any liability arising on final settlement will be recognised in the period in which the terms are concluded.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.

TO THE MEMBERS OF
VIPUL LIMITED
Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Qualified Opinion

1. We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of VIPUL LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company"), its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group") and its associates comprising of the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2026, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss including other comprehensive Income, the Consolidated Cash Flow Statement, the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity, for the year then ended, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as "Consolidated Financial Statements").

   In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of reports of the other auditors on separate financial statements of the subsidiaries and associates referred to in the Other Matters paragraph and except for the possible effects of the matters described in the "Basis for Qualified Opinion" paragraph and "Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion" paragraph below, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of their consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at March 31, 2026, of consolidated losses (including Other Comprehensive Loss), consolidated changes in equity and its consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

2. Matters described in Basis for Qualified Opinion:

   a. We draw attention to Note 39 to the consolidated financial statements, which describes the accounting treatment followed by the Company consequent to the Scheme of Arrangement ("Scheme") for amalgamation of five wholly owned subsidiaries with the Company. The Scheme has been approved by the Hon'ble National Company Law Tribunal ("NCLT"), Delhi, vide its order dated 17 April 2026, with an appointed date of 1 April 2022, and a certified copy of the said order was filed by the Company with the Registrar of Companies, Delhi, on 15 May 2026.

      As stated in the aforesaid Note, in accordance with the Scheme approved by the NCLT, the Company has given effect to the Scheme from the retrospective appointed date specified therein, i.e. 1 April 2022. Since the Transferor Companies were wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, the amalgamation has been accounted for under the pooling of interest method.

      However, the accounting effect relating to revenue and project costs arising from the Joint Development Agreement ("JDA") entered into amongst the amalgamating entities and Vipul Limited for the development of the Lavanya Project has been given effect to in the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2026, instead of from the appointed date of the Scheme, i.e. 1 April 2022. Accordingly, the cumulative effect of such revenue and project costs has been recognised in the current financial year and the corresponding impact has not been recognised from the appointed date. Consequently, the comparative information has not been restated in respect of such revenue and project costs.

      In our opinion, the aforesaid accounting treatment is not in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Indian Accounting Standards and the Scheme, which require the accounting effects of the amalgamation to be given effect from the appointed date of 1 April 2022. Consequently, the revenue, project costs, profit or loss, assets, liabilities and reserves for the current year and the comparative information are affected to the extent of the aforesaid matter.

b. Attention is drawn to note number 38 regarding charge of depreciation amounting to Rs 7.12 lakhs for the year, on the combined value of land and building.

c. The Holding Company has outstanding Project advance aggregating to Rs.2,400 lakhs as detailed in note number 41 of which Rs. 2,200 lakhs is recoverable from an entity whose name has been struck off from the Register of Companies and Rs. 200 lakhs from a person associated with the entity. The Company has made a provision of Rs. 1,200 lakhs against these two amounts. The recovery of the balance is uncertain.

d. The Holding Company has advanced funds aggregating to Rs 6,414.80 lakhs as detailed in note number 46 (a) under Other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026 as project advance to an entity whose net worth has been eroded. The Company has not recognised any impairment provision in respect thereof. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.

e. The Holding Company has project advances Rs.3,588.50 lakhs as detailed in note number 46 (c) under other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026. This advance is subject to ongoing litigation. Considering the current status of litigation, the recovery is doubtful. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.

f. The Holding Company has granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances aggregating to Rs. 14,730 lakhs as detailed in note number 37(b)(i) included in current assets as at 31 March 2026. The company is in process of finalising the terms and conditions for recovery of the said amounts. In view of the above, the company should have impaired these loan and advances which has not been done. Consequently, the current assets are overstated to that extent.

g. In six subsidiaries and one associates not audited by us and whose audit reports for financial year ending 31st March 2026 has been provided to us, the concerned auditors have emphasized in their respective audit reports that the respective subsidiaries have a) granted Project Advances and / or have Capital Work in Progress consisting of a project under implementation and there is no progress in development activities of the project as these projects have been kept on hold, b) in case of Ritwiz Builders and Developers Private Limited there are outstanding balances of TDS, Advance Tax & Advance recoverable from Parties, the realizability of these balances are uncertain and c) in case of Vipul Hospitality Limited, there are non-payment of GST on reverse charge mechanism due to non-registration under GST.

h. Certain Trade Receivables of the company are not confirmed as they are under reconciliation as mentioned in the notes to accounts.

Accordingly, our opinion is qualified in respect of these matters.

Basis for Disclaimer of opinion

3. Matters described in Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion:

a. The Company has advanced an amount of Rs. 1,080.66 lakhs, as detailed in Note 40 (b) to the financial statements, included under Other Non-current Assets as at 31 March 2026, to its associate company, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, towards a project which is on hold due to certain regulatory issues. Considering the current status of the project, we are unable to express an opinion on recoverability of the aforesaid amount.

b. As detailed in note number 48, the Company has not provided interest expense on its certain ICDs amounting to Rs 1,582.28 lakhs as negotiations with the lenders are under process, these borrowings will be settled mutually. Additionally interest expense on advance received from customers has also not been booked as negotiations for settlement of the same is under progress. As agreements governing these balances are not available, consequently, the terms and conditions necessary for determining the applicable interest rate and computing the related interest expense could not be determined and potential overstatement or understatement cannot be ascertained. In view of the above, we are unable to express an opinion thereon.

c. The Company has outstanding ICDS aggregating to Rs. 6,902.96 lakhs as detailed in note number 48 as at 31 March 2026. The agreements and other supporting documentation governing these balances have not been executed and are not available as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective lenders as most of these borrowings are presently pending before various legal and judicial forums. In the absence of duly executed agreements and balance confirmations, interest payable, wherever applicable, has been computed based on the details and information provided by the management.

4. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rules thereunder and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained along with the consideration of audit reports of the other auditors referred to in "Other Matters" paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

5. We draw attention to the following matters included in the Notes to the consolidated financial statements:

   a. The Holding Company has recognised income pursuant to the Arbitral Award and interest under the MDA Agreement aggregating to Rs. 21,070 lakhs as detailed in note number 43, which is included in Trade Receivables from Solitaire Ventures Pvt. Ltd. and Tanamera Developments Private Limited. Litigations are underway for recovery of the aforesaid amounts in Hon'ble High Court of Delhi and Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. However, the company is yet to receive entire amount and the amounts are under litigation.

   b. The Holding Company has project advances aggregating to Rs. 970.13 lakhs as detailed in note number 46 (b) under other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026 which is recoverable from Solitaire Ventures Private Limited which is under litigation.

   c. Note 57 to the financial statements, which stats that the Company has accepted funds from its customers in respect of various properties under development which have not been delivered to customers in terms of agreements as prescribed in clause Rule 2(1)(xii)(b) of the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 2014 with consequential impact under section 73 of the Companies Act 2013.

   d. Note 50 to the financial statements, which details the gratuity liability of the Company amounting to Rs. 181 lakhs payable to its employees, which remains unpaid as at the reporting date as required under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

   e. Note 60 to the financial statements, which states that as per the information available with the Company, there are no dues to Micro, Small or Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) under the MSMED Act, 2006 at the year end.

   f. Note 68 which states that certain balances under Loans, Advances and Trade Receivables are subject to balance confirmations.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of these matters.

Key Audit Matters

6. Key Audit Matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report:

Sr. No	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
1	Revenue recognition – accounting for construction contracts There are significant accounting judgements involved in the recognition of revenue from contracts, particularly in determining the estimated costs to complete, assessing the stage of completion of contracts and determining the appropriate timing of revenue recognition. The Company recognises revenue and the corresponding profit or loss based on the stage of completion of each contract, which is determined with reference to the proportion of contract costs incurred up to the reporting date relative to the estimated total costs expected to be incurred over the life of the contract. Accordingly, the measurement of revenue and contract profitability is dependent on management's estimates of the total costs required to complete each contract.	Our audit procedures in relation to this Key Audit Matter included, amongst others, the following: • Obtained an understanding of the Company's accounting policies and processes for recognition of revenue from contracts and assessed their consistency with the applicable financial reporting framework. • Obtained an understanding of the significant contractual terms and conditions, including contract tenure, consideration, scope of work, performance obligations, milestones, billing arrangements, and termination clauses.
2	Assessing the Recoverability of project advances As at 31 March 2026, the Holding Company has project advances classified under both current and non-current assets. These include an advance of ₹6,414.80 lakhs to an entity for which there are no definitive executed agreements or other legally enforceable documentation specifying the purpose, terms and conditions and recoverability of the advance. Further, the Company has an outstanding project advance of ₹2,200 lakhs recoverable from an entity whose name has been struck off from the Register of Companies. In view of the legal status of the entity, there is significant uncertainty regarding the recoverability of the advance. Considering the significance of these advances and the uncertainty surrounding their recoverability, we considered this matter to be of most significance in our audit and accordingly determined it to be a key audit matter.	Our audit procedures included, among others: • Obtained an understanding of the nature, purpose and ageing of the project advances. • In respect of the advance of □2,200 lakhs, considered the legal status of the recipient entity. • Discussed with management the status and basis of recovery of the advances and considered subsequent recoveries/developments, where applicable. • Evaluated the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements.

Material uncertainty relating to Going Concern

7. In five subsidiary companies not audited by us, material uncertainty relating to going concerns were identified as on 31st March 2026. In our report and the audit reports of the other auditors provided to us, it was stated that the respective subsidiaries have been incurring losses and their networth has been completely eroded. These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern. However, the financial statements of the subsidiaries have been prepared on a going concern basis for the reasons mentioned in the notes to their respective financials statements. Refer Note 65 to the consolidated financials statements.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Other Information

8. The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis; Board's Report including Annexures to Board Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholders' Information but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The aforesaid documents are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

9. Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

10. In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information when it becomes available, and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

11. When we read the aforesaid documents, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

12. The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements in terms of the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated cash flows and statement of changes in equity of the Group including its associates in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rules issued thereunder. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and of its associates for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

13. In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group including its associates are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and its associates to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

14. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its associates.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

15. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

16. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Group and its associates which are companies incorporated in India have adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associates to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associates to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associates to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

17. We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

18. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

19. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matters or when we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

20. Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

Other Matters

21. (i) The Consolidated Financial Statements include the audited Financial Statements of six subsidiary companies whose Financial Statements reflect Group's share of total assets of Rs.5956.80 lakhs as at March 31, 2026, Group's share of total revenue of Rs.1.98 lakhs and Group's share of total net profit/(loss) after tax of Rs. (35.15) lakhs, total comprehensive Income/(loss) of Rs. (35.15) lakhs for the year ended March 31, 2026 respectively, and Cash flows (net) of Rs. (682.35) lakhs for the year ended March 31, 2026 as considered in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by their respective independent auditors. The consolidated financial Statements also includes the Group's share net profit/(loss) after tax of Rs6.67 lakhs, total comprehensive Income/(loss) of Rs. 6.67 lakhs for the quarter ended March 31, 2026 and for the year ended March 31, 2026 respectively, as considered in the consolidated financial statements , in respect of two associates which have been audited by their respective independent auditors The independent auditors' reports on financial statements of these entities have been furnished to us and our opinion on the consolidated Financial Statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these entities, is based solely on the report of such auditors and the procedures performed by us are as stated in paragraph above.

(ii) The Consolidated Financial Statements do not include the financial statements of two associates - Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited and Whitfield Infrastructure Development Private Limited, as the audits of the aforesaid companies for the financial year ended 31.03.2026 are yet to be completed and therefore not available with the Company. However, for the purpose of consolidation of the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, the figures as per the latest available audited financial statements of the said associates for the year ended March 31, 2025 have been considered. The consolidated financial statements also include the Group's share of net profit/(loss) of Rs. (2.89) lakhs and total comprehensive income/(loss) of Rs. (2.89) for the year ended March 31, 2026, as considered in the consolidated financial statements, in respect of the aforesaid two associates, based on their financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us by the Holding Company's Management, these Financial statements are not material to the Group.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements is not modified in respect of the above matters with respect to our reliance on the work done and the reports of the other auditors and the financial statements certified by the Board of Directors.

ANNEXURE TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of

VIPUL LIMITED

[Referred to in paragraph 22 (h) of the Auditors' Report of even date]

Report on the Internal Financial Control under Clause (i) of Sub –section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013("the Act")

1. We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of VIPUL LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company"), its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group") and its associates, which are companies incorporated in India as of 31st March 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Holding Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The respective Board of Directors of the of the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies and its associates, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial control based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Holding Company, its subsidiaries and associates which are companies incorporated in India based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the "Guidance Note" and the Standard on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting includes obtaining an understanding of internal financial control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal controls based on the assessed risk. The procedure selected depends on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risk of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error.

5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors of the subsidiary companies and its associates, which are companies incorporated in India, in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting the Company, its subsidiary companies and its associates which are companies incorporated in India

6. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statement for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

1) pertain to the maintenance of the records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;

2) provide reasonable assurance that the transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statement in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditure of the company are being made only in accordance with authorization of management and directors of company; and

3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statement.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Control over Financial Reporting

7. Because of inherent limitation of internal financial control over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluations of the internal financial control over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Qualified Opinion

8. According to the information and explanations given to us and based on our audit, the following material weakness has been identified as on March 31, 2026:

   The Group has taken as well as granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances during the year. The agreements/ documentation in respect of such loans and advances have not been executed as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective parties. In the absence of such signed agreements, interest payable and receivable, as applicable, has been computed on the basis of the details provided by the Management where available. The impact, if any, will be recognized after settlement between the parties.

9. A 'material weakness' is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal financial control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Club's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

10. In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the material weakness described above on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria, the Club had established informal practices which are generally effective in having a proper internal control over financial reporting and except for the effects/possible effects of the material weaknesses described above on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria, the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as of March 31, 2026.

11. We have considered the material weakness identified and reported above in determining the nature, timing, and extent of audit tests applied in our audit of the 31st March, 2026 consolidated financial statements of the Company, and the material weakness has affected our opinion on the consolidated financial statements of the Company and we have issued a qualified opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Other Matters

12. Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting insofar as it relates to six subsidiaries and four associates which are companies incorporated in India, is based solely on the corresponding report of the auditor of such company incorporated in India.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note No. 29

A. Group Overview

Vipul Limited ("the Company") including its subsidiaries and interests in its Associates (collectively referred to as "the Group") is a public limited company domiciled and incorporated in India and its shares are publicly traded on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and the National Stock Exchange (NSE). The registered office of the Company is situated at Unit No. 201, C 50, Malviya Nagar, New Delhi-110017 and the corporate office is situated at Vipul Techsquare, Golf Course Road, Sector-43, Gurugram-122009 (Haryana).

The principal business activity of the company is Real Estate Development. The Company has its presence in the states of Haryana, Odisha and Punjab.

B. Significant Accounting Policies

1. Basis of preparation of financial statements

The Financial Statements of the subsidiaries used in the consolidation are drawn upto the same reporting date as that of the company, i.e. March 31, 2026.

The Consolidated Financial Statements of the Group have been prepared on accrual basis in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The financial statements have been prepared on historical cost basis, except for certain financial assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments).

The Ind AS financial statements are presented in INR which is the group's functional and presentation currency and all values are rounded to the nearest lakhs, except when otherwise indicated. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

2. Use of estimates and management judgements

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

a. Key estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

i) Revenue recognition, contract costs and valuation of trade receivables

The group recognized revenue from contract with customer of its real estate projects when control of the goods or services are transferred to the customer, at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the group is expected to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The group transfer control of a good and service over time. Accordingly, is measured by reference to the stage of the projects and contracts determined based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date bear to the estimated total contract costs. Hence method requires the group to estimate the costs expended to date as a proportion of the total costs to be expended. Significant assumptions are required in determining the stage of completion, the extent of the contract cost incurred, the estimated total contract revenue and contract cost and the recoverability of the contracts. These estimates are based on events existing at the end of each reporting date.

ii) Estimation of net realizable value for inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV).

NRV for completed inventory is assessed by reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined, based on comparable transactions identified by the Group for inventories in the same geographical market serving the same real estate segment.

NRV in respect of inventory under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction and an estimate of the time value of money to the date of completion.

iii) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

As described in the significant accounting policies, the Group reviews the estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment at the end of each reporting period.

iv) Actuarial Valuation

The determination of Group's liability towards defined benefit obligation to employees is made through independent actuarial valuation including determination of amounts to be recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss and in other comprehensive income. Such valuation depends upon assumptions determined after taking into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors such as supply and demand factors in the employment market. Information about such valuation is provided in notes to the financial statements.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

a. Principles of consolidation

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared on the basis of Indian Accounting Standard-110 on "Consolidated Financial Statements" read with the following assumptions:

- The financial statements of the parent company and its subsidiaries have been combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, after fully eliminating intra-Group balances and inter Group transactions.
- The consolidated financial statements are prepared by adopting uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances and are presented to the extent possible, in the same manner as the parent company's separate financial statement unless stated otherwise.

- The difference between the costs of investments in the subsidiaries, over the net assets at the time of acquisition of shares in the subsidiaries is recognized in the Financial Statements as Goodwill or Capital Reserve as the case may be.
- Goodwill arising, if any, out of consolidation is not being amortized.
- Minority Interest share of Net Profit/Loss of Consolidated Subsidiaries for the year is identified and adjusted against the income of the Group in order to arrive at the net income attributable to the shareholders of the Company.
- Minority Interest's share of Net Assets of Consolidated Subsidiaries is identified and presented in the Consolidated Balance Sheet separately from liabilities and the equity of the Company's Shareholders.
- Investment in associate are accounted for using equity method as per Ind AS 28 - Investment in Associates and Joint Ventures. Accordingly, the post-acquisition share of profit / loss of the associate company (the loss being restricted to the cost of investment) has been added to / deducted from the cost of investments. The excess of cost to the Company of its investment in the associates, over and above the Company's share of net assets in the associate, at the time of acquisition of share, is described as goodwill. On the other hand, where the share of net assets in the associate as on the date of investment, is in excess of cost of investments of the Company, it is described as Capital Reserve. Goodwill or Capital Reserve, as the case may be, is included in the carrying amount of investment.

b. Property, Plant and Equipment

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises of its purchase price, any costs directly attributable to its acquisition and an initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, the obligation for which the Group incurs when the item is acquired. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred. Each part of an item of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item is depreciated separately.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognized is de-recognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the Property, plant and equipment is derecognized.

c. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss.

The amortization period and the amortization method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting period.

d. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized as follows:

I. The Group recognises revenue, on execution of agreement or letter of allotment and when control of the goods or services are transferred to the customer, at an amount that reflects the consideration (i.e. the transaction price) to which the Group is expected to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services excluding any amount received on behalf of third party (such as indirect taxes). An asset created by the Group's performance does not have an alternate use and as per the terms of the contract, the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed till date. Hence the Group transfers control of a good or service over time and, therefore, satisfies a performance obligation and recognises revenue over time. The Group recognises revenue at the transaction price which is determined on the basis of agreement or letter of allotment entered into with the customer. The Group recognises revenue for performance obligation satisfied over time only if it can reasonably measure its progress towards complete satisfaction of the performance obligation. The Group uses cost based input method for measuring progress for performance obligation satisfied over time. Under this method, the Group recognises revenue in proportion to the actual project cost incurred (excluding land cost) as against the total estimated project cost (excluding land cost). The management reviews and revises its measure of progress periodically and are considered as change in estimates and accordingly, the effect of such changes in estimates is recognised prospectively in the period in which such changes are determined.

   a. A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional.

   b. A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Group transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognised when the payment is made or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract. A receivable represents the Group's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due).

II. Claims, interest and transfer fees from customers are recognized on acceptance of the same.

III. Income from interest is accounted for on time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable rate of interest.

IV. Revenue from operation includes various charges recovered from the customers which is recognized on accrual basis having regard to timing and nature of service provided.

e. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition or construction of a qualifying asset are carried as part of the cost of such asset. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the year they are incurred.

f. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is calculated using the written down value method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over the useful lives of assets estimated by the management and as given in schedule II of The Companies Act, 2013 except, life of furniture and fixtures has been estimated as 15 years against 10 years as per Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during a period is proportionately charged.

Software is amortized over the estimated useful life of 5 years.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

g. Inventories

1. Constructed properties, shown as work in progress, includes the cost of land (including development rights and land under agreements to purchase), internal development costs, external development costs, construction costs, overheads, borrowing costs, construction materials and is valued at lower of cost/ estimated cost and net realizable value.
2. On completion of projects, unsold stocks are transferred to project finished stock under the head "Inventory" and the same is carried at cost or net realizable value, whichever is less.
3. Finished Goods – Plots: Valued at lower of cost and net realizable value

h. Retirement Benefits

a) Short Term employee benefit

The employees of the Group are entitled to compensate absences which are non-accumulating in nature. Expenses of such compensated absences are recognized in the period in which such absences occur.

b) Long Term and Post–employment benefits

a) The employees' gratuity fund scheme managed by Life Insurance Corporation of India is a defined benefit plan. The present value of obligation is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method.

b) Retirement benefits in the form of Provident Fund and Superannuation/ Pension schemes are charged to the Profit & Loss Statement in the year when the contributions to the respective funds are due.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

i. Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation if the Group has a present obligation as a result of past event and the amount of obligation can be reliably estimated.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

Possible future or present obligations that may but will probably not require outflow of resources or where the same cannot be reliably estimated is disclosed as contingent liability in the financial statement.

Where an inflow of economic benefits is probable, a brief description of the nature of the contingent assets at the end of reporting period, and, where practicable, an estimate of their financial effect is disclosed.

j. Taxes on Income

Tax expense comprises both current and deferred tax. Current tax is determined in respect of taxable income for the year based on applicable tax rates and laws.

Deferred tax Asset/liability is recognized, subject to consideration of prudence, on timing differences being the differences between taxable incomes and accounting income that originates in one year and is capable of reversal in one or more subsequent year and measured using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date.

Deferred tax assets for carry forward business loss are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax asset can be realized

Deferred tax assets/liabilities are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date to reassess their reliability.

k. Foreign Currency Transactions

Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates in effect at Balance Sheet date. The gains or losses resulting from such translation are included in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of transactions.

Revenue, expense and cash flow items denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate in effect on the date of transaction.

l. Segment Reporting

The Group has identified that its operating activity is a single primary business segment viz. Real Estate Development & Services carried out in India. Accordingly, whole of India has been considered as one geographical segment

m. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

n. Cash & Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash & cash on deposit with banks and corporations. The Group considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash to be cash equivalents.

o. Financial Instruments

1. Financial Assets

- Classification

The Group classifies financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit and loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset.

- Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognized in the Group's statement of financial position when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition. All financial assets are recognized initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

- Subsequent measurement

The Subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification which is as follows:

- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

  Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss include financial assets held for sale in the near term and those designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss.

- Financial assets measured at amortized cost

  Loans and receivables are non derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Trade receivables do not carry any interest and are stated at their nominal value as reduced by appropriate allowance for estimated irrecoverable amounts based on the ageing of the receivables balance and historical experience. Additionally, a large number of minor receivables are grouped into homogenous groups and assessed for impairment collectively. Individual trade receivables are written off when management deems them not to be collectible.

- Financial assets at fair value through OCI

  All equity investments, except investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, falling within the scope of Ind AS 109, are measured at fair value through Other Comprehensive Income (OCI). The group makes an irrevocable election on an instrument by instrument basis to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. If the group decides to designate an equity instrument at fair value through OCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI.

- Derecognition

The group derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the assets expire or it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset. Upon derecognition of equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI, the associated fair value changes of that equity instrument is transferred from OCI to Retained Earnings.

- Investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates

  Investments made by the company in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are measured at Cost.

2. Financial liabilities

- Classification

  The Group classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost.

- Initial recognition and measurement

  Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, or as payables, as appropriate.

  The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts.

- Subsequent measurement

  The Subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification which is as follows:

- Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

  Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading, if any.

- Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost

  Interest bearing loans and borrowings including debentures issued by the Group are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method (EIR). Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fee or costs that are integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortized is included in finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

- Derecognition

  A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or expires.

- Fair Value measurement

  The Group measures certain financial instruments at fair value at each reporting date. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the assets or liability or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

  The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible to the Group. The Group uses valuation technique that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable, or
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

p. Impairment of non financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CG exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

Impairment losses, including impairment on inventories, are recognized in the statement of profit and loss. After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

q. Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a Group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Group recognizes lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and / or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses, if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

r. Events after reporting date

Where events occurring after the balance sheet date provide evidence of conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period, the impact of such events is adjusted in the Financial Statements. Otherwise, events after the balance sheet date of material size or nature are only disclosed.

s. Current versus non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle;
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle; -
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Group classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The real estate development projects undertaken by the Group generally run over a period ranging up to 5 years. Operating assets and liabilities relating to such projects are classified as current based on an operating cycle of up to 5 years. Borrowings in connection with such projects are classified as short term (i.e. current) since they are payable over the term of the respective projects. Assets and liabilities, other than those discussed above, are classified as current to the extent they are expected to be realized / are contractually repayable within 12 months from the Balance sheet date and as non-current, in other cases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

t. Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the liabilities are de-recognised as well as through the EIR amortization process. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

u. Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is due within 12 months after reporting period. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

v. Investments

Investments that are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as Long term investments.

Investments in Equity (other than in subsidiaries and associates) are carried at fair value through OCI while Investments in Mutual Funds are carried at fair value through profit and loss account.

Profit / loss on sale of on investments is recognized with reference to the carrying value of the investment.

3. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise loans and borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents and loans and advances and refundable deposits that derive directly from its operations.

The Group is exposed to market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's senior management oversees the management of these risks. The Group's senior management is supported by a financial risk committee that advises on financial risks and the appropriate financial risk governance framework for the Group. The financial risk committee provides assurance to the Group's senior management that the Group's financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Group's policies and risk objectives. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarised below.

a. Market risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises two types of risk: interest rate risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity/ real estate risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings and refundable deposits.

The sensitivity analysis in the following sections relate to the position as at March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025. The sensitivity analyses have been prepared on the basis that the amount of net debt and the ratio of fixed to floating interest rates of the debt. The analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on: the carrying values of gratuity and other post retirement obligations; provisions.

The below assumption has been made in calculating the sensitivity analysis:

The sensitivity of the relevant profit or loss item is the effect of the assumed changes in respective market risks. This is based on the financial assets and financial liabilities held at March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025.

i. Currency risk

Currency risk is not material, as the Company's primary business activities are within India and does not have significant exposure in foreign currency.

ii. Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's long-term debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Group manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of fixed and variable rate loans and borrowings. The Group does not enter into any interest rate swaps.

iii. Interest rate sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Group's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

(Rs. in lakhs)

Particulars	Increase/ decrease in Interest rate	Effect on profit before tax*
March 31,2026
INR	Increase by 1%	Nil
INR	Decrease by 1%	Nil
March 31,2025
INR	Increase by 1%	Nil
INR	Decrease by 1%	Nil

Determined on gross basis i.e. without considering capitalization of such borrowing cost.

b. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Group is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including refundable joint development deposits, security deposits, loans to employees and other financial instruments.

Trade receivables

(a) Receivables resulting from sale of properties: Customer credit risk is managed by requiring customers to pay advances before transfer of ownership, therefore, substantially eliminating the Group's credit risk in this respect.

(b) Receivables resulting from other than sale of properties: Credit risk is managed by each business unit subject to the Group's established policy, procedures and control relating to customer credit risk management. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored. The impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date on an individual basis for major clients. In addition, a large number of minor receivables are grouped into homogeneous groups and assessed for impairment collectively. The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of each class of financial assets. The Group does not hold collateral as security. The Group's credit period generally ranges from 30-60 days.

Financial Instrument and cash deposits

Credit risk from balances with banks and financial institutions is managed by the Group's treasury department in accordance with the Group's policy. Investments of surplus funds are made only with approved counterparties and within credit limits assigned to each counterparty.

Counterparty credit limits are reviewed by the Group's Board of Directors on an annual basis, and may be updated throughout the year subject to approval of the Group's Finance Committee. The limits are set to minimize the concentration of risks and therefore mitigate financial loss through a counterparty's potential failure to make payments. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk for the components of the statement of financial position at 31 March 2026 and 2025 is the carrying amounts.

Annexure 1 to the Statement on Impact of Audit Qualifications (for audit report with modified opinion) submitted along-with Annual Audited Financial Results –(Consolidated)

Sl	Details of Audit Qualification	If Management is unable to estimate the impact, reasons for the same	Auditors' Comments on Management's reasons
1.	Project advances falling under other non- current assets includes an amount of Rs.2,200 lakhs recoverable from Shri Kamala Priya Auto and General Agencies Private Limited and Rs. 200 lakhs from one of the associated person of the entity namely Mallipudi Anand. Subsequent to the grant of the aforesaid advance, the name of the above mentioned Company has been struck off from the Register of Companies. The Company has made a provision of 50% of the aforesaid amount i.eRs. 1,200 lakhs. The recovery of the balance is uncertain.	The advance was granted in the normal course of business towards acquisition of land for a project. Management is actively pursuing recovery from the promoters of the struck-off company, including Mr. Mallipudi Anand, and is also evaluating legal remedies.	No specific comments other than our observation inauditor's report. Impact on revenue in unascertainable.
2.	The Company has advanced funds aggregating to Rs 6,414.80 lakhs to Flying Fox Private Limited under Other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026 as project advance, an entity whose net worth has been eroded. The Company has not recognised any impairment provision in respect thereof. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.	Management has noted the auditors' observation. Based on management's assessment of expected cash flows, the advance is considered recoverable at present. Management remains mindful of the concern raised and will continue to monitor the position closely, reassessing the need for any impairment at each reporting date and providing for it, if circumstances so warrant.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
3.	The Company has project advances Rs. 3,588.50 lakhs relating to Amritsar Project under other Financial Assets as at 31 March 2026. These advances are subject to ongoing litigation. Considering the current status of litigation, the recovery is doubtful. Consequently, Other Financial Assets and profit for the year may be overstated to the extent of any impairment provision that may be required.	The advances relating to the Amritsar Project are the subject of litigation in which, based on legal advice, the Company believes it has a strong case on merits. Management expects a favourable outcome and full recovery of the amount. Any provision, if required, will be considered upon the outcome of the litigation.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
4.	The Company has granted several secured and unsecured loans and advances aggregating to Rs. 14,730.11 lakhs included in current assets as at 31 March 2026. The company is in process of finalising the terms and conditions for recovery of the said amounts. In view of the above, the company should have impaired these loan and advances which has not been done. Consequently, the current assets and profits for the year may be overstated to that extent.	These loans and advances were granted in the ordinary course of business, and a significant portion of them is secured.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue in unascertainable.
5.	The Company has advanced an amount of Rs. 1,080.66 lakhs, included under Other Non-current Assets as at 31 March 2026, to its associate company, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, towards a project which is on hold due to certain regulatory issues. Considering the current status of the project, we are unable to express an opinion on recoverability of the aforesaid amount.	The project of the associate, Vipul Karamchand SEZ Private Limited, is temporarily on hold pending certain regulatory clearances, which the associate is actively pursuing with the authorities concerned. The underlying project asset remains with the associate. Management considers the advance recoverable either on revival of the project or through realisation of the underlying assets, and hence no provision is considered necessary at this stage.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.

6.	The Company has not provided interest expense on its certain ICDs amounting to Rs 1,582.28 lakhs as negotiations with the lenders are under process, these borrowings will be settled mutually. Additionally, interest expense on advance received from customers has also not been booked as negotiations for settlement of the same is under progress. As agreements governing these balances are not available, consequently, the terms and conditions necessary for determining the applicable interest rate and computing the related interest expense could not be determined and potential overstatement or understatement cannot be ascertained. In view of the above, we are unable to express an opinion thereon.	The Company is in negotiation with the ICD lenders for a mutually agreed settlement, which is expected to include waiver or reduction of interest. Since the settlement is expected to be concluded without a material interest liability, no interest has been provided. Similarly, advances received from customers towards projects, settlement discussions are in progress. Any liability arising on final settlement will be recognised in the period in which the terms are concluded.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
7	Certain Trade Receivables of the company are not confirmed as they are under reconciliation as mentioned in the notes to accounts.	Management acknowledges the auditors' observation. Based on the information available, management does not presently anticipate any material adjustment. Any differences identified on completion of the reconciliation will be suitably addressed in the books, and management will continue to work towards strengthening the confirmation process going forward.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
8	The Company has outstanding ICDS aggregating to Rs. 6,902.96 lakhs as at 31 March 2026. The agreements and other supporting documentation governing these balances have not been executed and are not available as at the reporting date and the outstanding balances remain unconfirmed by the respective lenders as most of these borrowings are presently pending before various legal and judicial forums. In the absence of duly executed agreements and balance confirmations, interest payable, wherever applicable, has been computed based on the details and information provided by the management.	The Company is in negotiation with the ICD lenders for a mutually agreed settlement, which is expected to include waiver or reduction of interest. Since the settlement is expected to be concluded without a material interest liability, no interest has been provided. Similarly, advances received from customers towards projects, settlement discussions are in progress. Any liability arising on final settlement will be recognised in the period in which the terms are concluded.	No specific comments other than our observation in auditor's report. Impact on revenue is unascertainable.
