Harley-Davidson Marks 17 Years in India, Commits to Expanding brand's presence and accelerating growth in Partnership with Hero MotoCorp

New Delhi, November 26, 2026: Harley-Davidson President & CEO Artie Starrs, together with Hero MotoCorp's Executive Chairman Dr. Pawan Munjal commit to further strengthening Harley-Davidson brand's presence in one of the world's largest two-wheeler markets through a strategic initiative - Mission: The Big RIDE. Marking 17 years since entering the Indian market, this initiative in partnership with Hero MotoCorp, will focus on an enhanced customer experience, wider dealer footprint, expanded product portfolio and deeper engagement with the country's growing premium motorcycle and rider community.

Dr. Pawan Munjal, Executive Chairman, Hero MotoCorp, said, "Our partnership with Harley-Davidson brings together two strong, valued organisations with complementary strengths – Harley-Davidson's iconic brand and product legacy, and Hero MotoCorp's deep understanding of the Indian consumer, manufacturing excellence, engineering capabilities and extensive market reach. Together, we have enabled the Harley-Davidson brand experience accessibility to a wider audience while creating new opportunities in India's growing premium motorcycle segment. As we celebrate 17 years of Harley-Davidson in India, we remain committed to building on this strong foundation and taking the partnership to new frontiers."

Artie Starrs, Global CEO, Harley-Davidson, said, "Our partnership with Hero MotoCorp gives us a strong foundation to continue growing in India, combining Harley-Davidson' global brand recognition and product expertise with Hero MotoCorp's expansive retail network. We've seen market share gains this year across all of our segments, reflecting improving demand and sustained retail momentum. Going forward, we have an opportunity to strengthen our relationship with riders and dealers as we expand the Harley-Davidson community.*

Strengthening the product proposition

As part of its India strategy, Harley-Davidson offers its global motorcycle portfolio across Custom Vehicle Operations, Touring, Cruisers (Softail), Adventure Touring and Sport categories. The brand will also continue to introduce new models under the Harley-Davidson X range.

Building a stronger riding community

At the heart of Harley-Davidson identity is the passionate riding community, with an exciting calendar of experiences through March 2027. This features the Northern and Eastern H.O.G. Rides, participation at India Bike Week featuring Flat Track Racing, Harley Rock Riders and Custom Build-Off, the India H.O.G. Rally and Destination X.

With over 3,000 members, India's Harley Owners Group (H.O.G.) is the largest H.O.G. network across Asia's emerging markets. Further reinforcing this strong rider fraternity, more than 100 Indian Harley-Davidson riders will participate in Asia Harley Days in Thailand on November 27–28, 2026, making India one of the most strongly represented markets at the regional event.

Strong business momentum and expanding retail footprint

Harley-Davidson has crossed a significant milestone in India, with its cumulative customer base exceeding 80,000 motorcycles since commencing its dealer operations in 2010. The Harley-Davidson X range, co-developed with Hero MotoCorp, has emerged as a significant growth driver, contributing over 50,000 units since its launch in 2023, expanding the brands reach among the premium motorcycle customers.

Further strengthening its presence in India, the strategic partnership between Hero MotoCorp and Harley-Davidson will see the addition of two new full-line dealerships in Raipur and Indore, taking the network to 23 dealerships across India. Complementing this, Hero PREMIA, which supports the sales of Harley-Davidson X motorcycles, has expanded to 152 outlets with further expansion underway.
