Annexure – A

Name of the Authority	New South Wales Land and Environment Court, Australia
Nature and details of the action	Judgment in respect of Wollongong Resources Pty Ltd. ("WRPL"), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, in relation to matters concerning licence conditions and water discharge at Bellambi Gully in September 2024. The Court assessed both matters at the lower end of seriousness, recognising WRPL's prior clean record, cooperation, genuine remorse, prompt clean-up and corrective measures, and the low likelihood of recurrence. The Court has directed WRPL to make payments aggregating to A$252,711, comprising A$120,000 towards the Bellambi Gully Environmental Restoration Project, payable to Wollongong City Council and A$132,711 towards the New South Wales Environment Protection Authority's professional and investigation costs. The restoration-project payment is directed to Wollongong City Council.
Date of receipt of communication from the Authority	November 19, 2026
Details of the violation(s)/contravention(s) committed or alleged to be committed	The matter relates to licence conditions and water discharge at Bellambi Gully in September 2024.
Impact on financial, operational, or other activities of the Company, quantifiable in monetary terms	The financial impact is limited to the above amount and related publication expenses. Based on the assessment, the matter is not expected to have any material impact on its financial, operational or other activities.
