EPL | Red cards and early goals compound Manchester United's misery

Pochettino makes grim start

AP

Former United States men's national team coach Mauricio Pochettino began his new role with a chastening 4-0 defeat to Liverpool at Anfield on Sunday, equalling an unwanted club record for the heaviest loss by a United manager in his first match in charge. According to Opta, only Lal Hilditch suffered such a heavy debut defeat, losing by the same score to Bolton in Oct 1926.

"It is painful, we are feeling pain for the defeat, but we need to keep our heads up. We need to translate that anger into an energy and start to work from tomorrow for the next game," Pochettino said.

Pochettino watched from the touchline as his new side quickly unravelled after kick-off. Leny Yoro received a red card in the eighth minute for fouling Alexander Isak on the edge of the penalty area when the striker was through on goal. Dominik Szoboszlai punished the foul by driving in the resulting free kick in the 10th minute, and Florian Wirtz volleyed a second three minutes later.

"The game changed completely... The damage is done," Pochettino said.

Liverpool created several chances to extend the lead, with Bradley Barcola and Isak missing clear openings in the second half. Rio Ngumoha added a third goal in the 66th minute before Victor Munoz completed the 4-0 scoreline in the 82nd minute.

United entered the fixture on the back of its worst start to a season in 40 years. Defeat leaves the 20-time English champions second from bottom in the Premier League with one league win all season and one victory in 11 matches across competitions. Home supporters taunted the visitors with chants of "You're going down" and directed "You're getting sacked in the morning" at Pochettino days after he left the United States setup.

Despite the scoreline, Pochettino highlighted effort and argued Yoro should not have been sent off, while insisting United forward Bryan Mbeumo deserved an earlier penalty.

"We need to accept the reality and we need to be responsible. We need to be united," Pochettino said. "We need to be all together. We feel disappointed because it's clear that after eight minutes ... the plan was in the bin. What I learned from my players is that they like to fight. They're committed with the team, with the club and, of course, they want to win games. Today we made an unbelievable effort. Today was a test that for me is very positive."

Liverpool climbed to fourth in the table and became the third club in England's top flight to win 700 Premier League matches, following United and Arsenal.

"We wanted to get at them, not give them any confidence," Liverpool captain Virgil van Dijk said. "Obviously we know when a new manager comes in it can give a boost, players want to show themselves, so we had to, especially in the beginning period, focus on ourselves, and that's what we did."

Elsewhere, Brighton lost 2-0 at Hull after Costinha was sent off in the 89th minute and Oli McBurnie scored twice in stoppage time. Hull earned its first league win since August to rise to 11th, while second-placed Brighton missed a chance to close within three points of leader Arsenal after Hull goalkeeper Konstantinos Tzolakis made several saves. On Saturday, Arsenal drew 2-2 with Newcastle and third-placed Manchester City drew 1-1 with Fulham.

European Round-Up

Barcelona rally past Villarreal as Esposito hits treble

Villarreal stunned Barcelona with two goals in the first seven minutes through Canada internationals Tajon Buchanan and Tani Oluwaseyi. Lamine Yamal then missed a penalty to leave Barcelona trailing 2-0 at halftime.

Barcelona staged a powerful second-half comeback with three goals in 10 minutes. Gerard Martin and Fermin Lopez scored for the Catalan club before Villarreal's Pau Navarro put the ball into his own net to make it 3-2 in the 67th minute. Navarro received a second yellow card in stoppage time.

The home victory moved Barcelona clear of Real Madrid, which on Saturday came from behind to defeat Celta Vigo at the Santiago Bernabeu Stadium. Barcelona has won three straight league matches since its first league defeat of the season against Real Madrid in the clasico at Camp Nou last month.

Elsewhere in Spain, third-placed Atletico Madrid beat host Getafe 3-0 after Alex Baena struck early with a low shot from outside the area. Osasuna beat Malaga 1-0, while Racing Santander defeated Real Sociedad 3-2.

Defending champion Inter wasted its chance to move into second place behind Lazio in a 4-4 draw at Atalanta in the late game, powered by three goals from Esposito.

The forward completed his treble in the 52nd minute by calmly sweeping the ball over the goalkeeper after Marcus Thuram picked him out. Franck Kessie earned a point for Atalanta by converting a stoppage-time penalty. Inter sits third, a point behind second-placed Roma.

Luciano Spalletti's 600th Serie A game as a coach ended happily despite Juventus drawing boos from fans at halftime. After a goalless first half against Venezia, Juventus surged ahead in the second through Nick Woltemade, Teun Koopmeiners and Juan Cabal before Randal Kolo Muani made it 4-0 from the penalty spot. Woltemade crossed town after the match to watch the ATP Finals in Turin, where fellow German Alexander Zverev lost the final to Carlos Alcaraz in straight sets.

Paris FC brushed aside Angers by scoring all four goals after the break. Patrick Zabi tapped in the opener right after halftime and Luca Koleosho made it 2-0 in the 55th minute. Maxime Lopez and Diego Coppola completed the scoring on a rainy afternoon in Paris.

In its second season since promotion to Ligue 1, Paris FC has seven wins in 11 matches.

Barcelona's Eric Garcia celebrates. AP
