Cede Donbas to Russia and join NATO, US tells Ukraine

KYIV

THE United States suggested for the first time that Ukraine cede land to Russia in exchange for joining NATO, President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said in comments released on Saturday, adding that Russia had rejected an energy target ceasefire at talks this week.

Zelenskyy said Russia was "betting everything" on this winter's campaign in its war with Ukraine, while warning that the Kremlin's demands to redraw Europe's security architecture are "dangerous" and could lead to more wars.

He insisted Ukraine would not recognise any land seized by Moscow's troops as Russian. Zelenskyy spoke to the media Friday after visits to Denmark and Ireland, where he met with European leaders following two days of US-brokered Ukraine-Russia talks in Abu Dhabi.

The talks ended with no breakthrough in Europe's worst war since World War II, but all sides agreed that European officials should be included in future negotiations.

"The Americans raised a question: 'What if Ukraine joins NATO? Would Ukraine withdraw from Donbas?' This was the first time this had been raised," Zelenskyy said in the comments kept under embargo until Saturday.

He said Ukraine was discussing "specific security guarantees from NATO and the EU" and that if Western countries confirmed them "then I will ask our Ukrainian society what it thinks: do we accept it or not? I have no right to make that decision on my own." US envoys Jared Kushner and Steve Witkoff attended the Abu Dhabi talks and then met after with Putin and Zelenskyy separately. Moscow turned down a proposal for a ceasefire in attacks on energy targets at the Abu Dhabi talks, Zelenskyy said. "On the proposal for an energy ceasefire: the Russians don't want it," Zelenskyy said. Putin's proposal for a "humanitarian mission" to Kostyantynivka, Zelenskyy said, was a ploy to get Kyiv to withdraw from the embattled city and open the road to more settlements in the Donetsk region. Russia said this year that it had seized the town but Ukraine has said fighting is ongoing. "Putin simply wants us to leave Kostiantynivka so that they can move in and occupy the entire city that way," Zelenskyy said. Moscow's troops have inched westwards since launching the invasion in February 2022, but have been unable to seize the whole of the Donetsk region. Zelenskyy said the EU and NATO are Europe's "only real security" and that Moscow's bid to review the continent's security was "dangerous because... it is precisely things like this that lead to wars or escalations." AFP

Drones spotted over US base in UK in latest security scare

LONDON

UNAUTHORISED drone activity prompted a security response at an American base in Britain, but the situation has been "resolved," US and UK defence officials said Friday.

Security forces at Royal Air Force Base Lakenheath in eastern England responded to suspected unauthorised drone activity, but no personnel, aircraft or infrastructure were affected, the US Air Force in Europe said in a statement.

"We continue to work closely with our host nation counterparts to ensure the safety and security of our US service members, US and host nation civilians, contractors, and all of our families," the statement said.

A spokesperson for the British Ministry of Defense said the incident has been "resolved." US Air Force security personnel had responded to the reports, and the UK ministry is working closely with the Americans to determine what happened, according to the spokesperson, who spoke on condition of anonymity to discuss sensitive security matters.

The drone incident means that three US bases in the United Kingdom have been affected by threats in recent weeks. Friday's security response at RAF Lakenheath comes just days after the US moved more than a dozen aircraft from a different base just miles away in eastern England — RAF Mildenhall — because of a threat.

During the plane exodus, RAF Mildenhall also raised its alert level to FPCON Charlie — the second-highest level, which is used when an incident occurs or intelligence is received indicating that some form of terrorist action targeting personnel or facilities is likely.

A US official said at the time that the decision to move the aircraft was proactive rather than reactive. Several weeks ago, a group of men was detained after three suspicious vans were spotted traveling toward RAF Fairford, roughly 240 kilometres west of Mildenhall and Lakenheath. AP

SETBACK TO ANWAR IN MELAKA POLLS

In a setback to Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim's Pakatan Harapan coalition, Barisan Nasional and its ally Perikatan Nasional won 24 of the 28 seats in the 16th Melaka state election. "With this result, Barisan Nasional and Perikatan Nasional will form the next Melaka state government," BN chairman Zahid Hamidi was quoted as saying by The Straits Times. "PH accepts this result and respects the mandate given by the people of Melaka," Melaka PH chairman Adly Zahar said. "PH also accepts this as a democratic responsibility to further improve our efforts," he added.
